

My name on Wisconsin's "No Call List" is very important to me because it has practically eliminated all unwanted telemarketing calls, including calls from banks, to my house. I would appreciate it that you deny a petition by the Consumer Banking Association that I feel would weaken my protection, under Wisconsin law, from all unwanted telemarketers.

Thank you for your attention to this matter